HAPPY ENDING

These are the days of the LEA

What are you doing Saturday night—making a beautiful impression in something from our new 24 page Fashion Expressions collection. Starts on page 51

The impact of a total look
It's just a taste of our new collection for the woman who believes in fashion, from her casual weekend wear to her most formal evening outfit. The important words this season are color, texture, and shape.

The color story? It's mixing of brights with darks, shown in the splashes of color in a violet leather glove or a wool scarf.

Texture? It's big news now, especially the combining of textures. Notice the leather trim on the luxurious mohair blend jacket. Paired with a sleek leather pant, it's the ultimate fashion statement.

The new shape? It's oversized. Note the cut of the sweater shown above—the dolman sleeves, the newer lines. It's the touch that updates the classics you've come to love

So, look to pages 51 thru 74 for what's now, what's new.
